

Benefits of Membership

Join the NACC Community! We're a community of child welfare, juvenile justice, and family law professionals dedicated to improving the lives of children. While our membership includes children's attorneys, parents' attorneys, agency attorneys, and juvenile court judges; it also includes multidisciplinary professionals, including doctors, social workers, educators, and lay advocates with a specific interest in advancing the rights and well-being of children in the child welfare system. NACC membership starts at $125 annually. As a member, you'll gain access to members-only services and areas of our website, and your dues will support a cause you believe in.
