

NACC Red Book

4TH EDITION

The National Association of Counsel for Children:

#PromotesExcellence

by providing programs and resources that improve the quality of legal representation for children, parents and agencies.

#BuildsCommunity

by supporting a national community of hard-working and dedicated child welfare professionals, and by helping attract and retain diverse talent in the children's legal advocacy profession.

#AdvancesJustice

by advocating for policies that advance children's rights, opportunities, and well-being, including the right to counsel.

Child welfare law is complex and ever-changing, and the practice of representing children, parents, and agencies in dependency cases requires extensive knowledge and skill in both legal and non-legal subjects. The need for up-to-date specialized resources is more crucial now than ever before. Child Welfare Law and Practice: Representing Children, Parents, and Agencies in Neglect, Abuse, and Dependency Cases, 4th Edition – more commonly known as “the Red Book” – serves as a reference guide, a study source, and an essential tool for all child welfare practitioners, especially lawyers.

Red Book 4 was edited by Josh Gupta-Kagan, LaShanda Taylor Adams, Melissa Dorris Carter, Kristen Pisani-Jacques, and Vivek S. Sankaran. New contributors, fresh content, and a revised book structure differentiate this latest edition, which includes new chapters on LGBTQ+ youth, racial justice, representing parents and children with disabilities, multidisciplinary advocacy, preventive legal representation, crossover youth, child trafficking, and more!
