

NACC RED BOOK TRAINING COURSE

CLE INFORMATION SPRING 2025

GENERAL

- Keep track of which sessions you attended live and which sessions you viewed on-demand throughout the series.
- Complete one attendance form for all your live sessions and another for all your on-demand sessions after the course ends.
- Don't sign in after each individual session – sign in once after you finish all live sessions (if any) and once after you finish all on-demand sessions (if any).
- Certificates of attendance will be available in the Course Materials folder after the course ends.

CALIFORNIA (60-Minute Hour)

This participatory activity has been accredited by the State Bar of California for a maximum of 12 hours of general credit. Live and on-demand viewing are both participatory activities since NACC confirms duration of attendance. Attorneys must sign in for CLE after completion of the course. Credits will be reported within 60 days of completion.

COLORADO (50-Minute Hour)

Course IDs: 858489 (live) and 858491 (on-demand)

This course is accredited by the Colorado Board of Continuing Legal and Judicial Education for a maximum of 14 units of general credit. Attorneys must sign in for CLE after completion of the course. Colorado is a self-report state. Report credits at <https://cletrack.coloradosupremecourt.com>.

ALL OTHER JURISDICTIONS

Attorneys in all other jurisdictions must seek CLE accreditation individually if desired. Attendees are welcome to fill out the attendance form for personal recordkeeping – you will receive a copy of your attendance form via email after submission – but NACC will not report CLE credits on your behalf and you will need to independently seek accreditation.
